Technology Acceptance of Connected Services in the Automotive Industry Springer Science & Business Media Telematics in the automotive industry are the most popular example of Connected Services. But despite their implementation in several million of vehicles worldwide, there has only been little consideration in research. Clemens Hiraoka analyzes the entire customer lifecycle from awareness, acceptance, and usage to the renewal of the service contract and uncovers the drivers in each of these stages. His evaluation gives a series of new implications for management and research.

Mitchell Transmission Service & Repair Domestic Cars, Light Trucks & Vans, Imported Cars & Trucks Transcultural Marketing Routledge Because American consumers transmigrate between social identities in expressing their values and affiliations, marketers must apply transcultural marketing methods and offer a cultural values proposition to build long-term customer relationships. This unique book weaves these topics into profiles of 9 influential American subcultures currently shaping their members marketplace choices. From AI to Autonomous and Connected Vehicles Advanced Driver-Assistance Systems (ADAS) John Wiley & Sons The main topic of this book is the recent development of on-board advanced driver-assistance systems (ADAS), which we can already tell will eventually contribute to the autonomous and connected vehicles of tomorrow. With the development of automated mobility, it becomes necessary to design a series of modules which, from the data produced by on-board or remote information sources, will enable the construction of a completely automated driving system. These modules are perception, decision and action. State-of-the-art AI techniques and their potential applications in the field of autonomous vehicles are described. Perception systems, focusing on visual sensors, the decision module and the prototyping, testing and evaluation of ADAS systems are all presented for effective implementation on autonomous and connected vehicles. This book also addresses cooperative systems, such as pedestrian detection, as well as the legal issues in the use of autonomous vehicles in open environments. International Developments Towards Improved Car-sharing Services Writersworld Limited The main topic of this book is the introduction of a new mobility service: One-Way and Open-End car-sharing. Dr. Bodo Schwieger describes a process starting from the anticipation and measurement of customer's needs to the introduction of innovative services. The described field test is second to none, as it offers gasoline vehicles in a One-Way rental scheme within an urban environment: 25 Smart vehicles were based at 8 stations and available to 4,000 car-sharing customers. This service is being analyzed for efficiency and customer reactions. In a second step, other car-sharing companies in Hamburg (Germany), Seattle (Washington), Kyoto and Tokyo (Japan) are analyzed for their approaches to improving their services. combines technological competence, marketing know-how and customer analysis. Car-sharing has recently become a highly relevant topic with the fast expansion of the American providers and the market entry of Deutsche Bahn AG and Shell AG in Germany. The method respects the large amount of interdependence with other services and also the multiplicity of different customer groups. Thus it can be transferred to other (transportation) services - and used as a beginner's guide to service analysis. The book is based on the author's dissertation, which was accepted at the Technical University of Berlin in 2003. It delivers, on 150 pages, densely accumulated information. It is worth reading for anyone who is involved in introducing and developing new services, either within transportation or in related branches. Business America Chasing the Monkey King Acheron "A compelling read. The dialogue is witty, the plot intriguing, and the settings enthralling." —Robert Dugoni, Internationally Best-Selling Author of My Sister's Grave "Opens your eyes to the fascinating reality of our so-called trade war with China." —Coast Reviews A U.S. government investigator vanishes while on assignment in China. Former detective Lars Severin is hired by the investigator's family—mysterious scions of an international trade dynasty—to find out what happened to her. Was her disappearance the result of a random act of violence or something more sinister? Did she uncover something that drove a hidden enemy to make her disappear? Could she still be alive? Severin's quest casts him into a labyrinth of double-dealing and conspiracy, taking him from the misty streets and alleys of Seattle's old Chinatown neighborhood, to the corridors of power in Washington, D.C., to the dazzling city of Shanghai, to the ancient heart of rural China. The case grows more complicated with each step Severin takes, until all at once he realizes that his own life is in great danger.
