The Art of Becoming Ushers and Greeters of Excellence A Training Manual for Ministry Today

The goal of this book is to produce excellence in your usher and greeter ministry if your ministry is already established. If you are just starting as a church, this book provides teaching and instruction for ushers and greeters, as well as providing insight and solutions to problems that are going to arise in the life of the church. It provides examples of how different churches handle different situations so that you can choose the method which will be most effective for you. This book is helpful for any usher and greeter to read so as to become more effective in the ministry God has for them. Ushers and greeters are very important in the life of the church. The better trained they are, the better position the church will be in to grow by retaining more of the guests who visit the church.

Ushering with a Mission

A Training Manual for the Development of the Ushers Ministry

As we enter our church, the first person we often see is the usher. While many may look at the position of usher as simply a social one, it can be so much more. In "Ushering with a Mission," author Victor L. Davis presents the first comprehensive guide specifically addressed to the needs of the usher. The traditional approach to ushering focused on the task of meeting, seating, and greeting worshippers. The typical training manual addressed techniques ushers should use in carrying out those duties. Davis's "Ushering with a Mission" goes a step further and emphasizes the importance of disciplining the individual usher. Ushering is viewed as a ministry rather than a committee or board activity. The ministry of ushering is approached from a Christ-centered, biblical perspective. Ushering is not something we simply do because, "It's our Sunday to usher." We do it because it is a lifestyle, resulting from the overflow of the Spirit-filled life. "Ushering with a Mission" stresses the importance of Bible study, prayer, and personal evangelism with nonbelievers. Ushers will find fellowship with other believers in the Body of Christ as they explore ways to fulfill the great commission and commandment of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

The Usher's Manual

A Spiritual and Practical Guidebook

Zondervan From the perspective of a veteran pastor and communicator, Dr. Leslie Parrott describes the function of the usher and provides practical guidelines on how this vital role in the church may be carried out with grace and efficiency. Not only does he apply scriptural principles, but he relies completely upon Scripture in his development of the various qualifications and duties of the usher. In this practical, how-to-do-it book, Dr. Parrott explains: - The Ministry of Ushering: what makes a good usher; why ushers are important - The Function of an Usher - The Authority and Responsibility of an Usher - The Usher as a Greeter -- Every church can have an effective usher corps -- and this group will be even more effective if based on The Usher's Manual.

The Church Usher

A Reference for Sanctuary, Greeting, Parking Lot, and Driving Ushers

Tate Publishing In my youth I would watch the ushers at church and thought it would be neat to usher. It didn't look hard and I'd get to greet everyone. When I got old enough I volunteered and was hooked. After I was married and moved to the big city, the church I attend was very large, and like most churches they needed ushers. I was promoted very quickly and the responsibility didn't bother me. Then I was drawn to a new daughter church. This was a challenge, a brand new church. I offered what I could. When things got settled I was running one of the services. When the Head ushers spot came open I didn't think I was ready, so I prayed about it. A calmness came over me and I knew then it was what God wanted me to do.' David Foos, Head Usher, Canyon Hills Community Church, Bothell, Washington

Ushering with a Mission

Although this training manual seeks to address the proper protocol to be employed while the usher carries out his or her duties, Davis emphasizes the importance of ushering from a Christ-centered, biblical perspective. (Church Administration/Pastoral Resources)

Welcome to Our Church

When is the best time to seat latecomers? How can I be friendly toward visitors without appearing overzealous? What do I do if someone faints during the worship service? It's only natural as an usher or greeter to have questions like these. You can find the answers to these questions and more in this book. It enables ushers and greeters to make the church service more meaningful and memorable. Find out how to: Make visitors and members feel welcome, Handle large crowds of people and noisy children, Prepare for emergencies and problem situations, Usher at special services such as weddings and funerals. This booklet is ideal for training new ushers and greeters, as well as a reference for current ushers and greeters.

The Ushers, Protocols And Greeters That Every Church Needs

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform I started writing this book in 1994. That was the year the LORD graciously commissioned me to raise for Him Quality leaders. I started with Ministers' and Pastors' workshop. Training for ushers was the second assignment I handled among the three fold mandates the LORD gave me in 1994. But, no book was written by me back then, neither did I come across any specialized book on Ushers, Greeters and Protocols in one volume, 20 years ago. I have been privileged to conduct Training courses across the length and breadth of Nigeria on Ushering ministry for 20 years. I have interacted with over 400 churches from over 280 denominations in conferences and seminars but I never wrote a book on this topic. Our outfit, Christian Leadership Skills, have been involved in mass training for ushers in churches that counted 120,000 on Sundays with Ushers' workforce of about 4,000. I have written 36 books to date, but none on Ushers, Protocol and Greeters until now. A particular mega church invited us to deliver training for ushers and crowd controllers twice within three months in their headquarters church. Their invitation came a bit late I could not be there physically. I didn't have a book on Ushers or crowd control. Only a manual. Churches get confused on the role of ushers as different from protocol officers. I have witnessed ushers and protocols fight for territories in churches. A particular church head usher insists that he must stay side by side with the protocol officer by the altar, very close to the anointed. There was no book to show where each belong. A particular ministry scrapped the word "Ushers" from the list of ministries. The General Overseer banned the entire ushers from officiating in the length and breadth of the church. His reason? Brethren have the Holy Spirit to direct them. No need for Ushers and the church went on "smoothly thereafter". I had no book to give to the man of God. No book I could give, until 20 years later! Who are Ushers? Who are Protocol officers? Who are Greeters? Who are Traffic Controllers? I didn't write any book to explain. I only explain during workshop session. Now the explanation has become handy.

Living in Love and Faith

Christian teaching and learning about identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage

Church House Publishing Issues of gender and sexuality are intrinsic to people's experience: their sense of identity, their lives and the loving relationships that shape and sustain them. The life and mission of the Church of England - and of the worldwide Anglican Communion - are affected by the deep, and sometimes painful, disagreements about these matters, divisions brought into sharper focus because of society's changing perspectives and practices, especially in relation to LGTBI+ people. Living in Love and Faith sets out to inspire people to think more deeply both about what it means to be human, and to live in love and faith with one another. It tackles the tough questions and the divisions among Christians about what it means to be holy in a society in which understandings and practices of gender, sexuality and marriage continue to change. Commissioned and led by the Bishops of the Church of England, the Living in Love and Faith project has involved many people across the Church and beyond, bringing together a great diversity and depth of expertise, conviction and experience to explore these matters by studying what the Bible, theology, history and the social and biological sciences have to say. After a Foreword from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, the book opens with an invitation from the Bishops of the Church of England to embark on a learning journey in five parts: Part One sets current questions about human identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage in the context of God's gift of life. Part Two takes a careful and dispassionate look at what is happening in the world with regard to identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage. Part Three explores current Christian thinking and discussions about human identity, sexuality, and marriage. In the light of the good news of Jesus Christ, how do Christians understand and respond to the trends observed in Part Two? Part Four considers what it means for us as individuals and as a church to be Christ-like when it comes to matters of identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage. Part Five invites the reader into a conversation between some of the people who have been involved in writing this book who, having engaged with and written Parts One to Four, nevertheless come to different conclusions. Amid the biblical, theological, historical and scientific exploration, each part includes Encounters with real, contemporary disciples of Christ whose stories raise questions which ask us to discern where God is active in human lives. The book ends with an appeal from the Bishops to join them in a period of discernment and decision-making following the publication of Living in Love and Faith. The Living in Love and Faith book is accompanied by a range of free digital resources including films, podcasts and an online library, together with Living in Love and Faith: The Course, a 5-session course which is designed to help local groups engage with the resources, also published by Church House Publishing.
